

Student Abstract Grants (Applicants)
5th International Conference on Digital Health and Innovation
in Nursing and Health Science (DHIT 2025)
November 5-7, 2025

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Purpose

To encourage and support nursing and health science students to participate in academic conferences by providing registration fee waivers for outstanding abstract submissions.

Total Grants Available 10 Student Abstract Grants

Eligibility Criteria

1. Student Status

- Currently enrolled undergraduate, master's, or doctoral students in nursing, health science, or related fields
- Must provide official enrollment verification letter from current educational institution (to be attached with application)
- Full-time or part-time enrollment accepted

2. Submitted Abstract Requirements

- Must have submitted an abstract for consideration at DHIT 2025 conference
- Must be first author or corresponding author of the submitted abstract
- Abstract content must be relevant to the main conference themes: "Digital Health and Innovation in Nursing and Health Science"
- Abstract must meet all conference submission guidelines and deadlines

3. No Duplicating Funding Support

- Applicant must not have received funding support from other sources to attend DHIT 2025 conference
- Must declare any other funding applications or awards related to conference attendance
- Commitment to ethical use of grant funds

4. Presentation Ability

- Must be able to attend and personally present their work on November 4-5, 2025
- Must demonstrate English language proficiency for presentation and communication

5. Research Mindset and Future Potential

For Graduate Students with Research Experience:

- Demonstrates strong research orientation and potential for future research development
- Shows inspiration and clear goals for utilizing conference experience for research advancement
- Evidence of commitment to advancing knowledge in digital health and nursing/health sciences

For Undergraduate Students or Non-Research Students:

- Demonstrates strong interest in professional development and healthcare innovation
- Shows inspiration and clear goals for utilizing conference experience for career preparation and personal growth
- Evidence of commitment to learning about digital health innovations and contributing to healthcare improvement

6. Additional Requirements

- One grant per student per conference
- Must agree to acknowledge grant support in presentation materials
- Willing to participate in post-conference evaluation and feedback activities

Benefits

- Complete waiver of conference registration fees
- Certificate of recognition
- Priority consideration for oral presentation slots
- Networking opportunities with international experts

Application Requirements

1. Completed Application Form with personal and academic information
2. Official Enrollment Verification Letter from current educational institution
3. Copy of Submitted Abstract with proof of first/corresponding author status
4. Statement of Purpose (500 words maximum) addressing the following topics

- Demonstrate your strong research orientation and potential for future research development (Graduate students) or demonstrates strong interest in professional development and healthcare innovation (Undergraduate students)
- Show inspiration and clear goals for utilizing conference experience for personal and professional development
- Provide evidence of your commitment to advancing knowledge in digital health and nursing/health sciences

Please address the following guiding questions in your statement.

- What sparked your interest in research within digital health and nursing/health sciences?
- How do you envision your research contributing to the field in the next 5-10 years?
- What specific aspects of the DHIT 2025 conference are you most excited to learn about and why?
- How will attending this conference help you achieve your academic and career goals?
- What is your long-term vision for making an impact in digital health innovation?
- How do you plan to apply the knowledge and networks gained from this conference to advance your research?

5. English Proficiency Evidence (if applicable):

- TOEFL/IELTS, or
- Thailand-based Test scores, or
- Letter from academic advisor confirming English presentation ability, or
- Previous conference presentation experience

6. Academic Transcript (unofficial copy acceptable)

EVALUATION CRITERIA

1. Scientific Merit & Academic Quality (40 points)
    - 1.1 Research Question/Objective Clarity (10 points)
    - 1.2 Methodology Appropriateness (15 points)
    - 1.3 Results and Data Analysis (15 points)
  2. Innovation and Originality (20 points)
  3. Relevance to the DHIT 2025 Conference Themes (20 points)
  4. Clinical/Practical Impact (10 points)
  5. Quality of Writing and Presentation (10 points)
  6. Professional Development and Future Potential (Bonus - up to 5 points)
-

SUBMISSION INFORMATION

Submission Deadline: August 31, 2025, 11:59 PM (Thailand Time)

Award notification: September 25, 2025 (Thailand Time)

Submission Methods:

- Email: dhit2025@kku.ac.th (Subject: Student Grant Application - [Your Last Name])

File Requirements:

- All documents in PDF format
- Maximum file size: 5MB per document
- File naming: LastName_FirstName_DocumentType